SPECIALS OF THE DAY

LAGAVULIN 8 YEAR OLD

Released for Lagavulin's 200th anniversary, this limited-edition 8-Year-Old offers bold, smoky character with fragrant tea-scented smoke and maritime aromas. Light-bodied yet oily, the palate delivers an unexpectedly intense Lagavulin profile. Inspired by Alfred Barnard's 1880s visit, it's ideal for enthusiasts of peated Scotch.

GLENLIVET DOUBLE OAK 12 YEAR OLD

Matured in traditional and American oak casks for a velvety smoothness with vanilla notes, this whisky reveals a delicate complexity. Mineral-rich water from Josie's Well and precisely shaped copper stills impart layered aromas and flavours of subtle spice, soft fruit, and refined character.

LAPHROAIG 10 YEAR OLD

Full-bodied and smoky, with waves of seaweed, iodine and a touch of sweetness layered through rich peat. Hints of salt glide into a long, warming finish. A true coastal whisky, bold, distinctive and a cornerstone for aficionados of smoky drams with character and depth.
